5 – Residence permit

(Please fill in if not a Danish or EU citizen. The school is committed to ensure that a student who is not a Danish citizen has a residence permit. It is the applicant who must apply for the residence permit)

<input type="checkbox"/> I have a residence permit from the Danish Immigration Authorities.
<input type="checkbox"/> I do not have a residence permit from the Danish Immigration Authorities. I have contacted the Danish Immigration Service and the status for my application is: _____
<input type="checkbox"/> I have attached a residence permit application (the school will fill in part 2 if applicant is admitted).

6 – Subject choices

In the box below you must choose 3 higher level (HL) subjects and 3 standard level (SL) subjects. You must choose one subject from each group. If you wish to do Mathematics, French or Visual Arts at higher level, you must choose four higher level subjects and two standard level subjects. Later you will drop down to SL in one of the four subjects.

Please notice that universities have certain subject requirements (contact the IB student counsellor if you have any questions or for Danish universities see www.ug.dk).

Group 1 *) : Choose one	<input type="checkbox"/> English A Literature HL <input type="checkbox"/> English A Literature SL	<input type="checkbox"/> English A Language and Literature HL <input type="checkbox"/> English A Language and Literature SL

Notes:

*) Group 1 is supposed to be your best language or mother tongue. In the subject A1 Literature (English, Danish and self-taught) literature is the most important part. In A1 language and Literature (only for English) both literary works and a variety of non-literary texts are studied. Group 2 is a "foreign language". Language B HL is both a literary and linguistic course, language B SL is predominantly linguistic, and ab initio is beginner's level.

Please notice that it is compulsory to choose either Danish A or Danish B at Birkerød Gymnasium.

) See guidance above the box.

) When choosing an extra subject in group 3 or 4, please notice that the combination of Biology with Physics is not possible (due to scheduling technicalities).

Disclaimer: Birkerød Gymnasium cannot guarantee that all your choices can be met.
